

Ketubah

On XXX the XX day in the month of XXX 576X corresponding to the XX day of XXX 200X
as we reckon here in XXX located in the State of Israel,

the Bride, XXX
daughter of XXX & XXX XXXXX

and

the Groom, XXX
son of XXX & XXX XXXXX

said to each other:

Be my spouse according to the traditions of Moses and the Jewish People and I will cherish, respect and love you as Jewish men and women have cherished, respected and loved their spouses faithfully and with integrity.

The Bride & Groom commit themselves to create a Jewish home blessed with peace, tranquility, love and companionship; to strive to be aware and open to each other's needs in order to achieve mutual intellectual, emotional, physical and spiritual fulfillment; to raise children in the path of Judaism, marriage and good deeds—all this in the spirit of our people's ancient tradition and according to our people's modern world view.

The Bride & Groom take responsibility for the contents of this document which is valid and binding.

Bride

Groom

Rabbi

Witness

Witness

Abigail K.